

CALIFORNIA ACUPUNCTURE BOARD

PROPOSED REGULATIONS

Add Section 1399.469.3 to Article 6 of Division 13.7 of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations to read as follows:

1399.469.3. Notice to Consumers of Licensure by the Acupuncture Board.

(a) A licensed acupuncturist engaged in the practice of acupuncture shall provide notice to each patient of the fact that the acupuncturist is licensed and regulated by the California Acupuncture Board. This notice must be posted at each of the practice locations the licensee provides services. The notice shall include the following statement and information:

“NOTICE TO CONSUMERS
Acupuncturists are licensed and regulated
by the California Acupuncture Board
(916) 515-5200
<http://www.acupuncture.ca.gov/>”

(b) The notice required by this section shall be provided by prominently posting the notice in a conspicuous location accessible to public view on the premises where the acupuncturist provides the licensed services, in which case the notice shall be at least 48-point type font.
